Michigan Shirts Show Some Love

SHARE

Kyle Norris (2009-09-28)

NORTHVILLE, MI (MICHIGAN RADIO) - Two Northville women are trying to help people feel better about Michigan. Terri O'Brien and her business partner Lisa Burnia have made a series of t-shirts. The women sold the t-shirts this summer at several Michigan art fairs.

The t-shirts say MICH-I-can and Don't Mess With The Mitten. O'Brien says people definitely reacted when they saw the shirts.

"People walk by and they know exactly what it means they get a smirk on their face and they're proud. Everybody's proud to live here and work here and have grown up here."

O'Brien says the idea was not to sell t-shirts, but to create a sense of pride. They are donating part of the money they make to a food bank and to programs that help laid-off workers.

The shirts are available in stores in Northville, Milford, and South Lyon. They're also available online.
